

SO College UofM presents:

BIG HOUSE UNIFIED GAMES

Who is SO College?

We are a student organization that connects college students and individuals with intellectual disabilities through sports to build friendships and help lead the social justice movement of Special Olympics.

We play UNIFIED, meaning our athletes and volunteers are all playing together!

Our goal is to promote inclusivity, get some exercise through adaptive sports, and have fun doing it!

BIG HOUSE GAMES

EVENT CONCEPT:

- First annual Big House Games: Our goal is to bring together Special Olympics programs from various schools in the Midwest, fostering a sense of community and offering an inclusive and fun environment for all participants.
- Olympics-Style Games: 5 rotating activities: volleyball, soccer, football, yard games, and arts/craft. 50 Colleges will participate in each station, interacting and playing with different schools so everyone has the opportunity to meet new people!
- A fun atmosphere: DJ/Music, Raffle, Guest Speakers, Michigan Student-Athletes

BIG HOUSE GAMES

OUR GOAL:

- The primary goal of this event is to create an impactful, large-scale experience that unites Special Olympics College programs in a celebration of inclusivity, teamwork, and community. By offering a variety of adaptive sports and games, we aim to promote meaningful interactions between Special Olympics athletes and unified partners, fostering a spirit of friendship and competition. Additionally, this event serves as a critical awareness initiative to support ongoing and future Special Olympics programs, enhancing the reach and sustainability of our efforts to champion inclusivity in sports.
